

Colleen Holloway – St Boniface Diocese

“I was invited to join the CWL 30 years ago as a young mother wanting to volunteer in a meaningful way while also finding community. What I found was an organization that gave me an opportunity to learn and grow by providing leadership, education and a sisterhood that I cherish today as much as then, both locally, provincially and nationally. It helped me identify my gifts and gave me an opportunity to share them with the community at home and at large. Thank you to Heather Hacault of Notre Dame Parish CWL for that invitation. I had no idea at the time how life-changing attending that first meeting would be.”
